

He Shall Direct Thy Paths

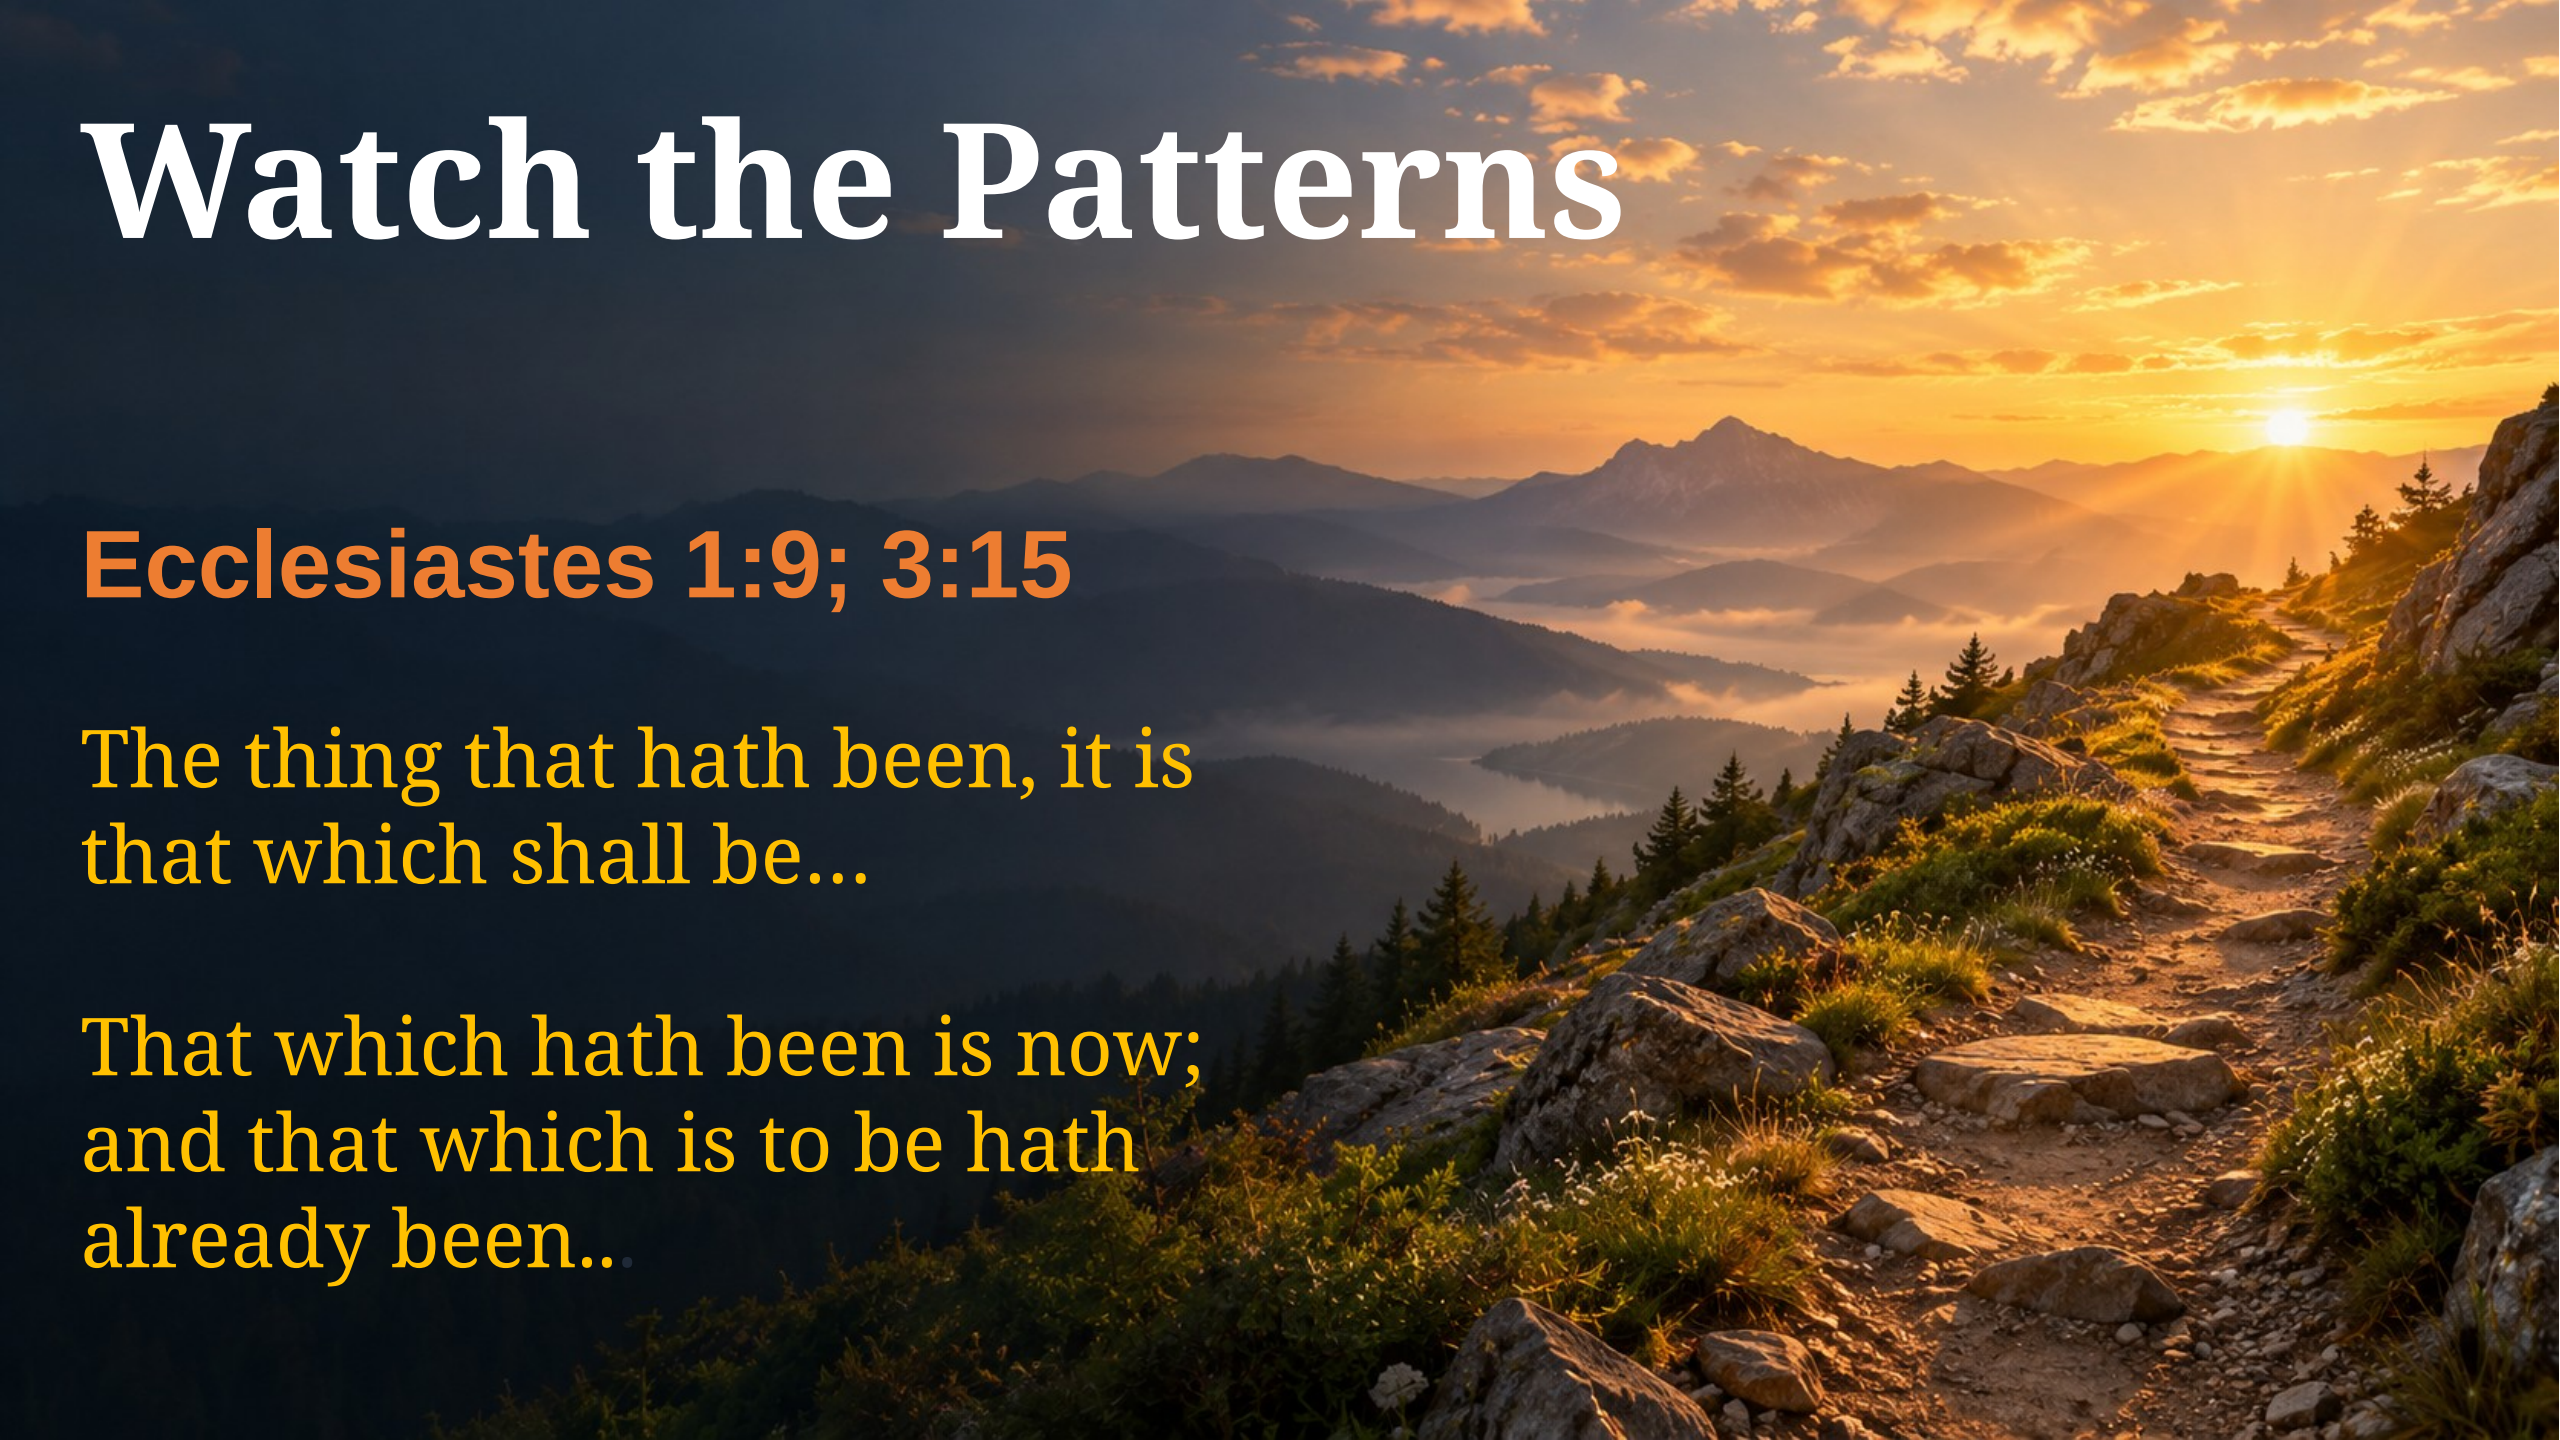

Proverbs + Ecclesiastes → Prophets + Isaiah

Watch the Patterns

Ecclesiastes 1:9; 3:15

The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be...

That which hath been is now;
and that which is to be hath already been..

Trust the Lord

Proverbs 3:5–6

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Question:

What do Proverbs and Ecclesiastes both teach us before we enter Isaiah?

We Are Entering the Prophets

Isaiah →
Jeremiah → Ezekiel →
Daniel →
Hosea → Joel →
Amos → Jonah →
Micah →
Zechariah → Malachi

Even the Psalms are filled with the spirit of prophecy, especially as they point toward the Messiah.

King David Son of David

Unto us a child is born... and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God...upon the throne of David. Isaiah 9:6

A still life scene with a scroll, a lit oil lamp, and a view of a city at dusk. The scene is set on a wooden table. In the foreground, a large, unrolled scroll lies flat, showing its aged, yellowed parchment. To the left of the scroll, a small, lit oil lamp casts a warm, golden light. Behind the lamp, a small metal cup and a rolled-up scroll are visible. In the background, a stone archway frames a view of a city at dusk, with buildings and a church spire visible against a twilight sky. The overall atmosphere is one of quiet study and reflection.

Then... Now... Again

Search these things diligently; for great are the words of Isaiah...

All things that he spake have been
and shall be.
